Prophet Ibrahim had a dream where Allah asked him to sacrifice his beloved son, Ismail. Ibrahim told Ismail about the dream, and brave Ismail agreed to obey Allah's command. Just as Ibrahim was about to sacrifice Ismail, Allah sent an angel with a ram to sacrifice instead. This was a test of their faith, and they passed! Every year, during Eid al-Adha, we remember their trust in Allah and celebrate by sharing meat with family, friends, and those in need. This special occasion teaches us about faith, obedience, and helping others.

EID AL-ADHA

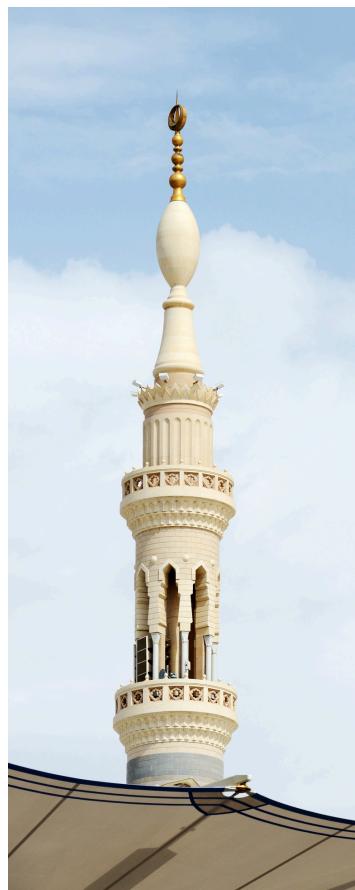

Around the World

“لَشَهَدُوا مَنَافِعَ لَهُمْ وَيَذَكُرُوا اسْمَ اللَّهِ فِي أَيَّامٍ مَقْعُولَةٍ
 عَلَيْهِ مَا رَزَقَهُمْ مِنْ بَهِيمَةِ الْأَنْعَامِ فَكُلُّوْهُ مِنْهَا وَأَطْعُمُوا
 الْبَائِسَ الْفَقِيرَ”
 سورة الحج 28

Eid Al-Adha commemorates the unwavering faith and obedience of Prophet Ibrahim ﷺ to Allah's command, as he prepared to sacrifice his beloved son, Ismail ﷺ. Allah, in His infinite mercy, replaced Ismail with a ram, symbolizing divine compassion and the importance of sacrifice.

Our beloved Prophet Mohammad ﷺ emphasized the greatness of this day, saying, "The greatest day in Allah's sight is the day of sacrifice and next the day of resting." These words remind us of the spiritual magnitude and the unique honor Eid Al-Adha holds.

In our celebrations, let us not forget to be grateful for the blessings we have. While we enjoy the festivities, our brothers and sisters around the world will observe Eid under various difficult circumstances, some fleeing from brutal occupations and others facing dire conditions like famine and oppression. Their hardships remind us of our shared humanity and the importance of supporting one another for the sake of Allah.

A Message From The Board

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ
الْحَمْدُ لِلَّهِ رَبِّ الْعَالَمِينَ وَالصَّلَاةُ وَالسَّلَامُ عَلَى سَيِّدِنَا مُحَمَّدٍ وَعَلَى أَلَّهِ وَصَحْبِهِ أَجْمَعِينَ

Dear brothers and sisters of Al-Huda community,

Today, we are celebrating Eid Al Adha as millions of pilgrims complete their Hajj duties and enjoy achieving one of the five pillars of Islam.

This year's celebration comes at a very difficult time for all of us as we witness one of the worst crimes in history committed against our brothers and sisters in Gaza and all of Palestine in what appears to be a systemic senseless genocide against our people. Our community has shown solidarity and support throughout this war and will continue to do so InshaAllah.

We urge everyone to continue demonstrating unity and strength as we unite today at our joint Eid prayer, representing all Indianapolis area mosques. Let us make duaa for the Palestinians and all oppressed Muslims worldwide.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all the volunteers and community members who always rise to the occasion and help whenever and wherever needed.

Eid Mubarak to you and your families
