السَّلَامُ عَلَيْكُمْ
وَرَحْمَةُ اللَّهِ وَبَرَكَاتُهُ

This week's theme is centered on one of the most valuable blessings we often overlook – time. Through Qur'anic reminders and Prophetic guidance, we aimed to highlight its importance and how not to waste it.

We sincerely thank each and every one of you for reading, reflecting, and supporting this newsletter. Your engagement means a lot and motivates us to continue.

We're also excited to share that we now have a new website where you can read and share all past and future articles:

PRECIOUS TRUST IN

Islam

Time is not just a passing measure – it is a divine gift and a trust (amānah) from Allah. Every moment carries weight and is an opportunity to earn reward or fall into heedlessness. The Qur'an powerfully reminds us:

وَالْعَصْرِ ﴿١﴾ إِنَّ الْإِنْسَانَ لَفِي خُسْرٍ

"By time, indeed, mankind is in loss" (Surah Al-'Asr, 103:1-2).

This brief yet profound surah emphasizes the urgency of time and how most people waste it except those who believe, do good deeds, and enjoin truth and patience.

The Prophet ﷺ warned against neglecting this blessing:

"يَغْمَدَانِ مَغْنُونٌ فِيهِمَا كَثِيرٌ مِّنَ النَّاسِ: الصَّحَّةُ وَالْفَرَاغُ"

"Two blessings many people waste: health and free time" (Bukhari).

Wasting time on distractions, idle talk, or excessive entertainment erodes our spiritual state. The believer is encouraged to fill his time with remembrance, learning, acts of kindness, and prayer. Allah says:

وَمَا خَلَقْتُ الْجِنَّ وَالْإِنْسَ إِلَّا لِيَعْبُدُونِ

"I did not create jinn and mankind except to worship Me" (Adh-Dhariyat, 51:56).

Time, once gone, never returns. The righteous predecessors valued every moment. Al-Hasan al-Basri said: "O son of Adam, you are but a collection of days; whenever a day passes, a part of you is gone."

BASMA ALY

About Basma

I moved to the community 10 years ago, I have been a part of AlHuda since then. I have a bachelors degree in psychology, I currently work at IU School of Medicine, in addictions research.

Hobbies and interests

I love volunteering at the masjid. I love hiking, traveling, cooking, and watching movies.

Hopes for the future

My hopes for the future of alhuda is for me to stay involved. I love the fact that this community is growing. I'm really hopeful for this generation and the youth to have stronger connection to the masjid than the generation before. My career goal is to become a therapist/psychologist, but I would hope to try to connect it to the masjid and work with the Muslims, especially the youth.

Role at Alhuda

I am the team lead for psychoeducation programs at Alhuda. I teach/oversee ESTEEM, EMERGE and any programs that fall under psychoeducation.

Lesson taught by youth

The most valuable lesson I've learned from the youth is that they don't need fixing—they need a safe space, the right tools, and someone who truly listens. It reminds me of how the Prophet ﷺ met people where they were—with mercy, not judgment. When we do the same, our youth don't just grow—they rise.

DITCH THE BINGE TUNE INTO SHEIKH NASSER

A reminder from Muhanad - his cameraman

The videos we record at the masjid find their home on the world wide web – a treasure chest of reminders, reflections, and rewards. Something for you and your family to sit around this summer, like a digital halaqah in your living room. They're free to watch, easy to access, and full of light – moments of khayr you can revisit again and again. A stream of benefit, one click away. And with every view, a chance for us all to share in the ajr, inshaAllah.

Today, we'll show you how to find it all – straight from your phone. No cost, no gatekeepers. Just knowledge, warmth, and the intention to grow closer to Allah.

poem OF THE MONTH

Suhba Fi-Allah

This year taught me the meaning of a true friend
Not like the one that hurts you and says they didn't intend

I found the people I needed my whole life
The people who don't cause useless strifes

The realization of true friends made me feel like I've been trapped all along
Made me realize that I didn't truly belong

Now that my eyes are open wide
I can see what I was missing on the whole other side

I thank Allah for making the best plan
Even if it was hard at least I moved past where I began

It's all maktub by Allah from the beginning
It was hard but now I can see myself winning

Winning the friends that make me even closer to my deen
The Quran in my hands more and more makes me glean

Thanks to the people who I can truly call friends
My Iman and relationship with Allah extends

Thanks to the people who I can truly call friends
My true supporters increase tens by tens

Thanks to the people who I can truly call friends
I can see beyond what I've ever imagined with my lens

Alhamdulillah for this amazing year that taught me valuable lessons
This being one of them, I've overcome many regressions
